Please note that this is an interfaith program and reflects our value for providing quality spiritual and emotional care to people of all spiritual, religious, and cultural beliefs, practices, and backgrounds.

PLEASE READ: Policy on Use of AI and Plagiarism

We recognize that the use of AI tools is becoming more prevalent and can be a helpful tool; However, we strongly discourage the use of AI to generate content for your application essays. If you choose to use AI, please include a statement of how it was used and the specific prompts (i.e. "I used AI to edit this document. Prompts used: Edit for spelling mistakes. Edit for better grammar. Edit to reduce redundancy. Keep all formatting the same. Create a list of all changes made"). Because self-reflection is a core component of CPE, all submitted work should be your own and unique to you. Please note that we are able to identify indicators of AI-generated content, and if we suspect the use of AI without a statement of how it was used, your application will not be considered for an interview.

Formatting Guidelines: Font: Times New Roman | Font Size: 12 pt font

Item Number:

2. "A reasonably full account of your life. Include, for example, significant and important persons and events, especially as they have impacted, or continue to impact, your personal growth and development. Describe your family of origin, current family relationships, and important and supportive social relationships."

This is intended to be a reflective and interpretive document, not just a presentation of facts. Reflect upon persons and events that have shaped you to be whom you are. In this document, seek to demonstrate your ability to reflect upon your life story with some awareness of how you came to be the person you are today. The focus of this essay is on your personal development, versus, solely your religious development.

This essay should be a minimum of three pages and a maximum of five pages in length. (approximately 1,200-2,250 words total)

3. “A description of your spiritual growth and development. Include, for example, for example, the Spiritual/Values-Based Orienting System into which you were born and describe and explain any subsequent, personal conversions, your call to spiritual care, religious or spiritual experiences, and significant persons and events that have impacted, or continue to impact, your spiritual growth and development.”

Again, think in terms of reflection and interpretation of your spiritual journey, not just a presenting of dates and facts. As you think of yourself as a spiritual care provider, reflect upon persons and events that have shaped you to be whom you are, in particular as a chaplain working with people of diverse spiritual beliefs and practices. In this document, seek to demonstrate your ability to reflect upon your life story with some awareness of how you came to have the spiritual beliefs and practices you have today.

This essay should be a minimum of three pages and a maximum of five pages in length. (approximately 1,200-2,250 words total)

Topics you may consider for reflection as you prepare to write include:

- What are my deepest values and what do I strive for in my life?
- What do I hold sacred?
- How did I discover the sacred?
- How have my experiences with spiritual diversity informed me? What experiences will I draw on as I anticipate being a spiritual caregiver for someone with different beliefs from my own?
- How has my larger family and institutional religious context shaped my attitudes toward spirituality and religion?
- How have I tried to develop and sustain myself spiritually over the years?
- What kinds of struggles have I encountered in the process of developing and conserving my spirituality?

5. “An account of a “helping incident” in which you were the person who provided the help. Include the nature and extent of the request, your assessment of the issue(s), problem(s), situation(s). Describe how you came to be involved and what you did. Give a brief, evaluative commentary on what you did and how you believe you were able to help.”

“If you have had prior and recent CPE, please attach a copy of a recent verbatim as your 'helping incident' and add to the verbatim your own notes on how and what you learned from sharing this verbatim with your educator and/or peers as well as feedback from your educator and peers about your spiritual care in the visit. If you have had CPE, but it was more than two years ago, include a recent account of a helping incident, written up in a verbatim format. If possible, include feedback from current spiritual care colleagues and/or administrative supervisor.”

Or, if you have not previously completed a unit of CPE:

Write about a recent “incident”, choosing one specific event or relationship. Pay attention to the details in the instructions—address each part of the instructions. As you select a “helping incident,” keep in mind the type of program you are applying for—training in pastoral care. Select an incident which demonstrates your ability to provide spiritual care, such as your use of reflective listening and empathetic connection, and that focuses on helping another with spiritual and/or emotional needs versus physical needs.

This essay should be a minimum of one page and a maximum of three pages in length. (approximately 400-1,200 words total)

6. “Your impressions of Clinical Pastoral Education. Indicate, for example, what you believe or imagine CPE to be. Indicate if CPE is being required of you. Indicate any learning goals or issues of which you are aware and would like to address in CPE. Finally, indicate how CPE may be able to help you meet needs generated by your spiritual care practice or call to leadership in a theological, spiritual, or values-based system.”

Note carefully the four parts to the instructions and address each one. State clearly what you believe you have to learn in CPE based on your research and understanding of this style of education.

If you have had prior CPE, please indicate the most significant learning experience you had during CPE. State how you have continued to use the clinical method since your previous experience. Indicate strengths and weaknesses that you have as they relate to your spiritual care practice and your identity as a professional person. Indicate any personal and/or professional learning goals and issues that you have at this time and how you believe that CPE will help you to attain or address these learning goals and issues. Also, be sure to read item #10 on the application. “An applicant with prior CPE should attach all previous self and educator evaluations.”

This essay should be a minimum of one page and a maximum of three pages in length. (400-1,200 words total)

Memorial Hermann Clinical Pastoral Education Residency Program Overview and Frequently Asked Questions

Where will I work and learn as a Memorial Hermann CPE Resident?

MH has two primary hospitals for CPE Residency groups. In both hospitals, Chaplaincy Services Departments provide spiritual care. These two departments are part of a system-wide Memorial Hermann Chaplaincy Services team, with full-time, part-time, and PRN chaplains at every hospital and rehab hospital location.

Memorial Hermann Texas Medical Center and Memorial Hermann Children's Hospital (TMC): A core of staff chaplains and six CPE Chaplain Residents/Certified Educator Candidates provide spiritual care here. Additional department staff include a Department Director, Children's Hospital Manager, a Lead Office Assistant, a Registrar, eight full-time day Chaplains, two Evening Chaplains, one Night Chaplain, a team of ministry volunteers, and a member of the Catholic Chaplain Corps who leads a team of Eucharistic Ministers and assigned Priests.

Memorial Hermann Southwest (SW): A Chaplain Manager, one full-time Chaplain, five CPE Chaplain Residents/Certified Educator Candidates, a team of ministry volunteers, and a Catholic Priest who coordinates a team of Eucharistic Ministers provide spiritual care at this location.

Prior to the beginning of the Residency year, the CPE Faculty assigns Residents to their campus for the year, at which time the Resident will begin the employment onboarding process.

Will I be a hireable professional chaplain after Residency?

Most healthcare institutions require full-time chaplains to be board-certification-eligible for hiring. In order to pursue board certification, chaplains must meet educational requirements, including a Master of Divinity or approved equivalency, four units of Clinical Pastoral Education, and endorsement by an approved group. For more information on these requirements, aspiring chaplains should familiarize themselves with the certification process, through the Association of Professional Chaplains, the National Association of Catholic Chaplains, or the National Association of Jewish Chaplains.

Memorial Hermann does not guarantee employment after Residency. Typically, qualified Residents begin applying for jobs in the fourth unit.

What will my typical week look like during CPE Residency?

Educational Time (12-13 hours per week): One and a half days of your week, you will meet with your CPE cohort, either campus-based or combined campus, to engage in structured educational time. Class time may occur at either TMC or SW and will always include the CPE faculty. One additional hour a week, the Resident will meet with their Primary Educator for individualized consultation.

Weekday Clinical Time (25-30 hours per week): Monday to Friday, unless it is a full educational day, a Resident begins by arriving in time to be settled and prepared for an 8:00am Morning Report with the Chaplaincy Department. These days are full of spiritual care work, in consultation with the Resident's clinical coach and colleagues, covering their assigned clinical areas and regularly carrying the duty pager/phone to coordinate spiritual care throughout the hospital. Residents take half an hour for lunch. The day ends at the conclusion of the 4:00pm Afternoon Report, a meeting that extends to various lengths from day to day. One additional hour a week, the Resident will meet with their Clinical Coach for individualized consultation.

Night/Weekend Duty Coverage (Varies by Campus and Week, see Similarities and Differences): Each campus has a different night and weekend schedule that the Residents help to cover:

- TMC: The six MH-TMC Residents provide in-house weekend coverage for three 12-hour shifts each weekend. Each Resident generally covers one shift every other weekend.
- SW: The five MHSW Residents provide 24-hour coverage on Saturdays and Sundays. This includes a 12-hour in-house shift, 8:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m., and 12 hours on-call from home (with callbacks as needed). Each Resident generally covers one Saturday or Sunday shift two of every five consecutive weekends.
- Residents may swap assigned shifts with one another in order to accommodate personal commitments. The faculty and staff encourage Residents to prioritize their self-care in these arrangements.

Additional Reading, Writing, and Reflection Work (Average 4 hours per week) : Residents will complete reading and writing assignments outside of the above educational and clinical times. Some weeks are heavier than others, depending on when the Resident is due to present and meet with their Educator, and on the reading and writing volume of that particular unit.

What about outside commitments during Residency?

The demands of the MH CPE Residency are rigorous. The Resident is a full-time employee with defined work hours and additional work time in order to keep up with assignments. The writing and reading requirements are demanding. The CPE faculty note that those who have additional employment or educational responsibilities often struggle to achieve the goals of the program. As a result, we strongly discourage Residents from securing or maintaining additional work or attending graduate school. Before a potential Resident attempts such an endeavor, they are encouraged to have a conversation with one of the ACPE Certified Educators during the admissions process.

What are the main similarities and differences between the two campuses where Residents serve?

In addition to the information above, know that all Residents are Memorial Hermann employees with benefits. This includes accrued time off (PTO), with an additional 1 spiritual days, 2 personal days, and 6 paid holidays.

All Residents have access to the multi-person CPE faculty, who office in a particular location but travel frequently to other locations to meet with Residents.
