

centering yourself

Take a moment to appreciate how far you've come.

What will you do when your goals get off track?

Who or what provided you support during Resolution™?

How would you like to be supported throughout the rest of the year?
